CITY WALK

THURSDAY 6 JUNE 2019

Our City walk this year is will be around London's other City, the City of Westminster, where, as well as enjoying some of London's most magnificent sites, we will hear the story of the First World War, the war that was supposed to end all wars. We'll hear of a country unprepared for war; meet many of its important figures; military leaders both great and rather less great; a royal family that was changed forever; squabbling naval leaders; prominent politicians; war departments; of the hundreds of thousands of ordinary men who went off to fight for their country and were never to return and the weary, war-worn though jubilant crowds celebrating the armistice.

Our Blue Badge Guide will take us around Parliament Square, past Westminster Abbey, over Horse Guards Parade and the Mall, ending at Charing Cross Station.

The event will finish at approximately 7.30 when we will have supper at a local pub or restaurant on a self-pay basis.

The maximum number for the Walk is 30 people so book early to obtain your place. If on the day of the event you are going to be late or unable to attend please contact the Event Organiser. You will be given her telephone number on booking. There will be no refunds after the closing date.

The cost of the Walk will be £20 per person (including VAT).
