SHERLOCK HOLMES WALK

Wednesday 6th June 2018

Sherlock Holmes was created by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle in 1887, and is possibly the most famous of fictional detectives. Many of the stories featuring him were set in London, and London is synonymous with Sherlock Holmes.

Whilst we can't promise a pea soup fog, on 6 June grab your deerstalker and join us for a guided walk retracing the steps of the detective and his author around the alleys, streets, pubs, theatres, restaurants and squares of Covent Garden starting from Embankment Tube on Villiers Street. Real life and fiction come together in the hidden gas lit passageways of Victorian London.

Meet at 5.45pm (prompt) for a 6.00pm start at the Villiers Street entrance to Embankment Tube Station, Villiers Street, WC2N 6NS.

The tour takes between 1.5 hours and 2 hours, and will finish at the Sherlock Holmes Pub and Dining Rooms at Northumberland Street (off Northumberland Avenue).

This will be followed by an optional supper at a local hostelry on a self-pay basis. Please indicate on the booking form whether you would like to join us for supper afterwards.

The cost of the event will be £25 per person (including VAT). Payment may be made by bank transfer to the Company account – Sort Code 40-03-17 Account No 61129201 Reference YourNameSHWnn (where YourName is your Surname and Initial and nn is the number of tickets), or by cheque.

Provisional bookings can be made by emailing adminwcta@ciot.org.uk but must be confirmed by forwarding the slip below. No tickets will be sent, but you will receive an e-mail confirming your booking. There is a limit of 25 people allowed on this tour, so bookings will be accepted on a first come-first served basis.
